Installation of Officers

A new term has begun at Bethel #107, and Jamie Milligan is serving as our Honored Queen. She had a lovely installation of officers on December 10th, and a complete list of Officers follows this article.

Jamie is using doves and peace signs this term. At her installation she was escorted to the East by her stepfather, David Baldwin, through a sword escort provided by Speedway DeMolay. It was a very nice afternoon complete with cupcakes and cookies afterwards.

Jobie of the Month

For January 2012, Jasmin Hachlafi has been selected as Jobie of the Month. Jasmin Nora Elaine Hachlafi attends Lebanon Middle School. She lives with her mom, stepdad and sister. She doesn't have any pets.

Jasmin favorite color is hot pink, and pigs are her favorite animal. She likes to eat steak and watch The Wizard of Oz or the Phantom of the Opera.

Her favorite station in the Bethel is 4th messenger, but she was just installed as our Guide. She is an enthusiastic Job's Daughter, always willing to help another Daughter with her ritual work, setting up the Bethel, or whatever is needed. Congratulations, Jasmin, our first Jobie of the Month for 2012!

Flipping Pancakes for HIKE

December 3 was a great day for Bethel #107 and for the Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment Fund. Our girls and council members got to work flipping pancakes and served up a delicious breakfast to lots of hungry customers.

A DJ from the WFMS radio station came to enjoy the pancakes, and I even heard that Santa Claus made an appearance.

At the end of the morning, we had raised over $100 for HIKE. Maybe we can make this an annual tradition, and next year bring our profit to $200! Wouldn't that be awesome!

A Christmas Parade

After the HIKE breakfast, our day was far from over, because December 3rd was also the Brownsburg Christmas parade.

Last year our Bethel got together to watch the parade. This year, they were in it!

The Daughters spent the afternoon decorating a wonderful float provide by our ABG John Snider. There was a large snowman, red bows, lights, and of course our HIKE and Bethel flags. Once the sun set, it was time for the parade.

It was a bit cold, but the girls and adults bundled up, sang Christmas carols, and had a great time along the parade route.
