Honored Queen

Welcome Rachael!

This month we'd like to give a special welcome to the newest member of Bethel #107, Miss Rachael Brainerd. Rachael has been a Jobie to Bee for the last 2 years, so we were excited to initiate her at our Official Visit on January 28th. She is 10 years old and goes to Pleasant View Elementary. Her mom, Julia, is a Past Honored Queen, and her sister, Bekah, is our Chaplain. Rachael attends Zionsville Methodist Church and she loves to sing. We are so excited to have Rachael as the newest Brownsburg Job's Daughter.

Speedway DeMolay

On February 18th, Genesis and Jamie traveled to Speedway to attend the installation of officers of the Speedway DeMolay. It was fun evening as Genesis' brother, Isaac, was installed as Master Councilor. He had a nice installation and Past Master Councilor Michael Wheatley did a wonderful job on the Ceremony of Lights.

Sweetheart Dance

An annual highlight of the winter season is the DeMolay Sweetheart Dance and this year was no exception. On February 12th many Daughters and adults from #107 traveled to the Scottish Rite Cathedral to dance the night away. The theme was “A Rockstar Sweetheart Dance” and it was definitely a rockin’ night. The girls had fun dancing and socializing and finished the evening with a trip to Steak’ n’ Shake.

Promotion & Community Service

Each month during this Supreme Guardian Council year our Bethel has participated in the promotion/service challenge issued by the Supreme Guardian.

In January we collected coats and other winter clothes to donate to “One Warm Coat.” For February, several of the Daughters got together and made Valentines for a local nursing home. We look forward to what the next few months’ challenges have to offer.

Honoring our Founders

March is the month when we remember two ladies who were very special and important to Job's Daughters. Mrs. Ethel T. Wead Mick founded our organization, and Mrs. Mae Marcum Jacobs brought Job's Daughters to Indiana. Here is a bit of information about Mother Mick. We will share information about Mother Jacobs at one of our March meetings.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. MICK

by Tomilynn W. McManus, PHQ, PSG

Ethel T. Wead Mick was born March 9, 1881, in Atlantic, Iowa, to William Henry Wead and Elizabeth Delight Hutchinson Wead, the youngest child in a family of two brothers and one sister. Her family was a closely knit one and very religious. Her mother read Bible stories nightly to her children and often referred to the Book of Job, stating her hope that her daughters would become as "fair as the daughters of Job." This influence eventually resulted in the founding of the International Order of Job's Daughters. While attending the Creighton Medical College in Omaha, Ethel Wead met William Henry Mick, a fellow medical student and they were married in May 1904. They had two daughters: Ethel and Ruth. Mrs. Mick's hobbies included singing, oil painting, china painting, reading, traveling, and participating in several different fraternal and civic clubs. Mrs. Mick passed away on February 21, 1957, at Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, and is buried in Omaha, Nebraska.

Mrs. Mick's gift to us, our beautiful International Order of Job's Daughters, brings to each member the joy and opportunity of working within the Masonic family as young women. And, our gratitude to Mrs. Mick for creating this organization is measured by the manner in which we strive to represent the ideas and teachings of our Order in our daily lives. Thank you, Mrs. Mick, for creating our wonderful Order. Your vision has made my life full, and your dream has come true time and time again as young women robed in white gather together to "Open the Gates of the Bethel".

March – Jobies Honor Our Founder

In Honor of Mother Mick's Birthday, schedule an Open Meeting or a presentation at your local library or community center for interested young women and their families. This may also include participation in a St. Patrick's Day parade or taking part in a Women's History Month event or activity to promote Job's Daughters.
